JOSIAH TURNER. Jr., EDITOR.

From the Wilmington Journal.

COL. WILLIAM E. HILL.

During the session of the Conservative Congressional Convention which recently met at Goldsboro', Col. W. E. Hill, of Duplin, who has been acting with the Republicans, announced his separation from the corrupt party. His course will stand to his credit upon Col. Hill. If honest men, from mistaken motives have been led into an affiliation with Radicalism, the corruption of the party and the ruin it has brought upon North Carolina, are sufficient to open their eyes, and cause them to refuse longer to give support to men and measures hostile to the best interests of their State and its people.

Col. Hill is reported by the Goldsboro' Messenger as follows:

"Col. W. E. Hill, of Duplin, being called upon, responded in a most animated and admirable speech. He said he had belonged to the Republican party, and while he had always regretted to differ with his Southern brethren and neighbors, he had ever hoped that things would come all right. He could now go with the Conservative party, endorse the address of the Conservative members of the late Legislature, which, he said, proclaimed his precise platform. He had always advocated universal suffrage and general amnesty, and while always favoring civil rights and free suffrage to the colored man, he had never allowed himself to become the enemy of the white man. He denounced the Republican party as being the most corrupt on the face of the earth; said he had been behind the curtain, and knew exactly what that party was. He denounced Col. Heaton's course as a member of Congress who, he said, had appointed, with but few exceptions, none but his relatives and Ohio carpet beggers to office; said that the annual salary derived from the Federal Government for Heaton's family was not less than $20,000. He could not endorse Littlefield, nor could he support any one who would endorse Littlefield and the like of carpet baggers. Said carpet-baggers would not do to trust. Littlefield was the most contemptible scoundrel who ever put his foot on the soil of North Carolina.—He denounced the National Police bill now being discussed before Congress.—Denounced Holden's War policy of organizing State troops. Said it was the most tyrannical despotism ever inaugurated in any country. It was done to aid the Republicans in the next election. Could see no necessity for it. Duplin, a strong Democratic county, was never more quiet than it is at present. He said that he had not been convinced as to the corrupt state of the Republican party through newspaper rumors, but through his own observation behind the curtain. All the Radicals wanted was office and official plunder, and he was now convinced that we should never have better times until the carpet baggers and office-plunderers were hurled from North Carolina back to where they hail from. Never would we have accepted an office upon the downfall of any people, and the man who would, on such condition, was not worthy to go down to the dogs. He gave some sensible advice to the colored people and wound up pledging Col. Humphrey a hearty support, whom he knew to be a friend to the colored people."

An observing scribe at the Capital relates that the new Attorney General found his way up to the capitol, Thursday afternoon, and was ushered into the House by a Georgia member, who conducted him to a sofa, where he remained during the discussion of the funding bill, which was then being considered. He carried a huge cotton umbrella under his arm, tied around with a string. He is reported to be a man of about 60 years, with prominent cheek bones. He was dressed in a slouchy suit of black, is partly bald, the few hairs remaining being of a butternut color and straggle around with an utter disregard of discipline. The correspondent avers that had not all the door keepers been informed that the strange philosopher was a Cabinet officer, they would have made a descent upon him and hauled him off the floor for a bummer who had got in while some one had been off duty. None of the members paid him any attention, or sought an introduction. Feeling like a stray cat, he soon slipped off as noiselessly as he came, with a painful realization that in the House of Representatives there was no disposition to welcome a rebel officer. The committee who came on from Connecticut to escort the President to Woodstock, on being told that the new Attorney General had not been invited with the rest of the Cabinet, declined to extend an invitation. They said they were not in pursuit now of such lions; that they once went for him, and he ran away from them, and now they did not want to see him.

CAUSE OF MORTALITY AMONG CHILDREN.—Dr. Snow, medical register of Providence, commenting upon the excessive mortality of children under five years of age, says:

"The truth is, the chief cause of infantile mortality is not more the weather or foul air than the ignorance and false pride of the mothers. Children are killed by the manner in which they are dressed and by the food that is given them, as much as by any other cause. Infants of the most tender age, in our changeable and rough climate, are left with bare arms and legs, and with low neck dresses. The mothers in the same dress would shiver and suffer with cold, and expect a fit of sickness as the result of their culpable carelessness. And yet the mothers could endure such treatment with far less danger to the health and life than their tender infants."

By this exposure of the extremities, in which the circulation is always less active than in parts nearer the heart, not only is an undue amount of animal heat lost by radiation, but the blood is driven in excess to internal organs, often with the most disastrous result.—New York World.

Keep a list of your friends, and let God be first in the list, however long it may be.

Keep a list of the gifts you get, and let Christ, who is the unspeakable gift, be first.

Keep a list of your mercies, and let pardon and life stand at the head.

Keep a list of your joys, and let joy unspeakable and full of glory be first.

Keep a list of your hopes, and let the hope of glory be first.

Keep a list of your sorrows, and let sorrow for sin be first.

Keep a list of your enemies, and however many they may be, put down the 'old man' and the 'old serpent' first.

Keep a list of your sins, and let the sins of unbelief be set down as first and worst of all.

The buildings and grounds are unsurpassed There are 60 rooms in the main building, with a most commodious and elegant chapel.

Hacks always at Henderson, to take pupils to the College. No charge to pupil for hack hire.

The subscriber begs to return his thanks to the many friends of Kittrell's Springs Female College for the liberal patronage which gave to that Institution an unparalleled success. It is due to them that he should assign the following reasons for leaving that location:

1. He can greater education. The property at Kittrell's is too expensive to establish there a permanent school at low rates. The buildings are of wood, requiring constant repairs, more liable to fire, and erected originally as a summer resort.

2 The desire expressed by so many to have Kittrell's Springs again opened as a watering place.

3. The kind and almost irresistible overture, made by the good citizens of Oxford, to come into their midst. Every appliance of the school at Kittrell's, including pianos, furniture, &c., has been moved by them free of all charge.

4. The wide-spread and justly deserved reputation of Oxford for health, refinement, and untiring zeal in behalf of education.

5 The unanimous action of the Board of Directors in placing the College in his charge for ten years.

6. The pupils in attendance at Kittrell's the past season with scarcely an exception, have been entered for the next session at Oxford, many parents expressing a preference for that location. This fact is most gratifying, and he congratulates himself that his former patrons sustain him with so remarkable a unanimity. He expects with the help of his former most efficient and accomplished Family (all of whom accompany him,) to build up in Oxford a permanent and first-class College for young ladies, one that shall be a joy to the State, and an ornament to the South.

WALTHAM WATCHES.

THE EXTENSIVE USE OF THESE WATCHES for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers, and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch-wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of these time-keepers.

More than 430,000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a proof and a guarantee of their superiority over all others.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enable them to produce watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch, merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.

We are now selling Waltham Watches at less prices in greenbacks, than the gold prices before the war. There is no other manufacture of any kind in the United States of which this can be said.

These time-pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal of nearly every invention in watchmaking originating in this country or in Europe, only those were finally adopted which severe testing by the most skilful artizans in our works, and long use on the part of the public demonstrated to be essential to correct and enduring time-keeping.

Among the many improvements we would particularize:

The invention and use of a centre-pinion of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the train by the breakage of main springs, is original with the American Watch Company, who, having had the refusal of all other contrivances, adopted Trogy's Patent pinion as being the best and faultless.

Hardened and tempered hair springs, now universally admitted by watchmakers to be the best, are used in all grades of Waltham Watches.

All Waltham Watches have dust-proof caps, protecting the movement from dust and lessening the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary in other watches.

Our new patent stem-winder, or keyless watch, is already a decided success and a great improvement on any stem-winding watch in the American market, and by far the cheapest watch of its quality now offered to the public. To those living in portions of the United States where watchmakers do not abound, watches with the above mention d improvements which tend to insure accuracy, cleanliness, durability and convenience, must prove invaluable.

Every watch guaranteed by the Company.

To prevent imposition, buyers should see that every watch should bear either of the following trade marks.

American Watch Co., - - - Waltham, Mass.

REGISTER! REGISTER!

Don't forget that every man in Wake county must register anew this year, before the August elections if he would vote.—The same is true of every other county where changes in township or county boundaries have been made.

The fact is, the law plainly requires every man to register, and it is the saftest plan to do it.

PREGNANT FACTS.

It is stated upon pretty good Radical authority that Holden, in his late interview with President Grant, in Washington, stated that there had been three hundred and sixty odd whippings and beatings of men and women in one District in this State, and not one single whipper had been arrested; that there had been fifteen murders in one District, and no murderer had been arrested.

This statement is said to have excited President Grant very much, and that he was quite severe upon Holden for his failure long since to arrest the criminals. This is mentioned by Holden's friends as an apology for raising State troops. Upon all which we make the following comment:

1. If Holden made the statement to Grant attributed to him, he spoke falsely. His fears and wicked imaginings have multiplied the acts of crime in the State vastly.

2. He so presented the matter to Grant as to make the impression that all this crime was committed by Ku Klux, whereas, two-thirds of it at least is chargeable to the members and friends of the Loyal Leagues. The cost third, if not one-half, is directly chargeable to the inefficiency of the Judicial department of the State, and a good deal of it to Holden's pardoning so many scapegraces and villains.

3. If Gen. Grant believed what Holden told him, he certainly wanted no better evidence of the total inefficiency of Holden himself and his entire judicial and magisterial Radical officiary in the State.—Whether President Grant could see through the matter is very doubtful. Had he seen through the vail, and understood Holden's real object, he would have said to him, "cease, sir, at once to raise your three regiments of State troops, which you neither have lawful authority to raise, nor money to pay them; go on with a lawful organization with your militia, and I will send, in addition to the two U. S. companies you already have in the State, three more, which if properly distributed will do all that military force can do in such a case." If he had added, "what you most need, Governor, is good sense, good management, and men of character to administer the laws in North Carolina," he would have shown more wisdom than he did in sending the troops.

One simple fact, which no man will deny, is a complete answer to all the clamor about crime and the necessity of troops in the State, and we respectfully commend it to the consideration of the President and others. It is this: No single instance has occurred in the State in which the officers of the law have been opposed or resisted. The whole difficulty lies in that we have a scalawag Governor, scalawag and carpet bag Judges and officiary generally. It is a shabby, contemptible set, and no one either fears or respects them.

If President Grant wants peace, just let him stand aside and mind his own business, until we drive the scoundrels from power on the first Thursday in August next, and then we shall have peace and law and order, too.

SUNDAY'S BRUTALITY.

Brutish! brutish! There is no other term by which to characterize the imprisonment of nine youths of the land, on Sunday, by U. S Commissioner, A. W. Shaffer, without a hearing.

The question will be asked, who is Shaffer?

We can only answer by saying, he is the carpet bag successor of Dewease as Commissioner in Bankruptcy in this city

We did not believe that, except Colgrove, or Tatten, any other carpet bagger could have shown so little feeling of humanity, or sense of common justice, as was shown by Shaffer, on Sunday last, in imprisoning nine young men without a hearing in one of the filthiest dungeons of the State, and that, too, after Lieutenant Powell, who had them in charge in the camp, had offered to keep them until Monday, the day of trial.

The character and deportment of the young men have made this brutish outrage tell with great force upon Holden, Shaffer and Carrow, who are the guilty parties in it.

Bosher, after keeping the young men in jail one night and part of two days, confessed that he could have brought them all to the city by a summons and without the aid of soldiers. Lieutenant Powell, we are informed, says there was no necessity for soldiers to make the arrests.

G. W. Pegram of Harnett, whose two sons were arrested, was about starting for Church when detective Bosher with troops surrounded his house. The Pegram family consists of seven persons, two sons and three daughters, father and mother. Mrs. Pegram and one of the daughters have been afflicted for a great while. The father is an elder in the Church; the sons are members of the Freshman class at Trinity College, and were at home spending vacation. They have been members of the Church from early boyhood, and one of them is preparing for the ministry.

These young men left an afflicted mother and daughter in the greatest distress at their arrest, and were forced to sleep the first night on the ground with Holden's detective, and Grant's soldiers guarding them. They bore their imprisonment with christian forbearance. An old stoner, seeing how silently and without murmuring they bore the indignity offered them, said, "Gosh! how I want to cuss for them young men."

We call upon all young men to deport themselves as these young men have done. Holden will be sadly disappointed if, with Kirk and such arrests and false imprisonments as this, he should not be able to get up another fight and have a little more blood letting. He can get up an arrest of a like character with this in every county in the State.

We call on the young men to bear with the malice and malignity of this jacobinical leader, and not be provoked by his daring despotism and political malignity.

But don't fail to vote, and vote to put down the malignant administration which is engaged especially in insulting, oppressing and tyrannizing over the people of the State.

PITT COUNTY.

A friend writing from this county to renew his subscription, says, "I do not know enough of county affairs to give you any political information, but if the state of an army can be surmised from its vanguard, (the candidates) the Radical party here is much weakened, having discarded its chief strength, the carpet baggers. The death of the Senator from New Hampshire and the disappearance of the Prince of their House, leaves them without a leader worthy of the position, for it is due to th se carpet baggers to say that in their sphere, one of them was worth dozens of the scalawags, who now undertake to usurp their positions. A Radical sheet is now being issued from the office of the lank preacher, Stilly, (who does keep a grog-shop,) but to use a piece of latin as I have heard it translated, "Nothing of the dead but the bones," and it is charitable to imagine that they will cause but little stench.

THE WORK BEGUN.

We are informed, on good authority, that as Kirk passed through Salisbury, one of his soldiers got into an altercation with a colored man, which created some little excitement, and that Kirk was heard to say that, if one of his men was killed or hurt, he would burn up the town of Salisbury!—The work is begun.

SUPREME COURT.

TUESDAY, July 12th.

The following cases were argued to day, to-wit:

W. H. Reynolds vs. State of North Carolina, from Wake. Counsel for plaintiff, Messrs. Battle & Sons and B. F. Moore, Esq., for the defendant, none.

Charles W. Lyman vs. Wm. H. Caliter, et al, from Granville. Counsel for plaintiff, Messrs. Edwards, Rogers and Batchelor, and for defendant, Mr. Graham.

Dos on demise of Jas. H. Lassiter vs. Richard Roe and Arch'd. H. Davis, from Granville. Counsel for plaintiff, Messrs. Graham, Rogers, Batchelor and Edwards, for defendant, Thos. Bragg, Esq.

A negro man named Ben Lassiter, living in that portion of Lenoir adjoining Wayne county, recently caused the death of a little colored boy about 8 years of age, who was living at his house, by inhuman and barbarious beatings.

It is alleged that for several weeks, the brute Lassiter has delighted in maltreating the child until, after much suffering from the blows and injuries inflicted by Lassiter, he died on the 4th inst. The verdict of the Coroner's Jury was "that the deceased came to his death from the blows and injuries inflicted by Lassiter." One of the gentlemen composing the "Jury of inquest" says that the corpse presented a most mutilated and sickening aspect, and the post mortem examination showed that the boy's skull was fractured in several places.

Up to last accounts Lassiter had not been arrested, and it seems that no attempt has been made to secure him.

DISAPPROBATION.

"We know there are some persons in the Republican party who object to the course of Governor Holden in calling out the militia, and many in the opposite party who denounce the movement as a heartless and evil piece of political strategy."—Standard, July 7th.

Yes, Mayor Harrison, the Governor's brother in-law, was more bitter in his denunciation of the arrest of the twelve men from three counties and their imprisonment on Sunday than any person we heard of.

Col. Byhum expresses his condemnation of the Governor's policy in the strongest terms. Judge Henry is said to have denounced it with a "damn."

Pilgrim Ashley says nothing, his bread depends upon the success of Kirk and the sword.

"My old master" General Dockery is full of indignation at the Governor's course, although he says but little, for fear of injuring Oliver's election.

"Whom the Gods would destroy they first make mad." The Governor is mad.—We can tell this from the character of the editorials he writes for the Standard.

Messinger, the carpet-bag Secretary of State, is open mouthed in his denunciation of the Governor's military policy. He declares it is the ruin of the party and the State. He was heard to declare there was not half a dozen respectable Republicans in Newbern who approved of the Governor's warlike preparations. If there is any truth in the old adage "honest men may now look for their dues."

"Judge" C. R. Thomas, the Radical League candidate for Congress in the 2nd District, in a public speech in Newbern, on Monday night last, declared that he did not believe in the existence of any such organization as the Ku Klux Klan.

Col. H. C. Jones, the Conservative nominee for the Senate in Mecklenburg county, will at once commence an active canvass.

Wm. S. Bynum, Esq., is the nominee of the Conservative party in Lincoln county, for the House of Representatives.

Brogden, the Radical candidate for the Senate in the Wayne District, and by the grace of Holden, "Major General" of the ferocious militia, declines to meet his opponent, Capt. Swift Galoway.

Wilmington is engaging in a new business—shipping live deer to New York.

The members of St. John's (Episcopal) Church in Wilmington are having a new parsonage erected.

It is reported that one of the Radical candidates in Lenoir county (name not given) has deserted his white wife and is openly living with a negro woman.

For the Sentinel.

RALEIGH, July 11th, 1870.

MR. EDITOR:—I deem it proper to give, through you, to the public, some account of the outrage committed in three counties by Gov. Holden's notorious detective, Boaher, aided by U. S. troops.

I live 24 miles from this city, in a peaceable, quiet, religious neighborhood. Since the surrender I have not known of any disturbance or even a fist fight in my neighborhood.

For 32 years I have been a member of the Baptist Church, having joined when 15 years of age. For eight years I have been a decon in the Church. I have endeavored to raise my children as I have lived.

My son William, a lad of 18, has been a member of the same Church for three years.

On Saturday evening last, he was taken from his sick bed, where he had been all day without eating a mouthful, and carried 14 miles to a soldiers' camp, where he lay on the ground upon a wet saddle blanket.

Sunday he was brought to this city and lodged in the jail built for felons, and why? because he was charged by a negro with an attempt to intimidate him as a voter.

I was plowing half a mile off when the soldiers entered my yard, surrounded my house, and greatly terrified my wife and three sick children in the house. A sick child, of eleven years old, came to give me the news of the armed men who had disturbed my suffering family and outraged my rights as a free man.

I followed the detective and soldiers for two and a half miles and came on towards the jail. On Sunday I reached the city about 11 o'clock, and knowing all of the young men arrested except two, perhaps three, as members of the Church and one of them preparing for the ministry, I proposed to procure bail for them all. I am sure every good man in the neighborhood would have joined with me, and I think nine-tenths of the colored people would have joined them, also.

My son and eight of my neighbors children were marched to the Barracks where Lieutenant Cobb, as I am informed, was willing to keep them as prisoners.

But this did not suit the malignants.—About two o'clock Sunday evening they were marched through the streets by soldiers, amid hundreds of rejoicing negroes, and lodged in jail.

I spoke to a big fat man, the marshal, and told him of my son's condition and sickness, and offered bail. The pious marshal said he could not take bail, this was the Sabbath and it was not customary to do so on the Sabbath. I told him his conscience would be clear if he never committed a greater sin.

I saw my sick son shut up in a filthy felon's cell, already partly filled with felons, with a full, sick heart I went to the house of my friend, Len Adams, where I met friends who comforted me in this severest trial of life. If I am to love my Government it must not have such men as Carrow, Bosher and Shaffer to execute its laws.—On Monday, when my son was brought before the carpet-bagger Shaffer, not a witness testified against him. One witness said she knew him well, he was not there, if he had been she would have known him.

Now, Mr. Editor, I charge all this upon Governor Holden. He is at the bottom and top of it all. I thank God that the matter has ended without blood shed. I think it was owing entirely to the christian spirit of the young men arrested. I believe in many other States, Bosher and his little squad would have met with resistance for such an outrage upon the christian children of christian men. If my son is able to travel I shall start for home to-day, after paying 33 dollars as my costs and charge for this outrage.

WM. H. NORRIS.

Carl H. Walton, who recently committed suicide in Woodlawn Cemetery, near Boston, left a note declaring that "as the garden he had laid out had been devastated by the chickens of his son, he had become tired of life, and was going to meet his beloved wife."

TOWNSHIP MEETING AT ROLESVILLE.

At a meeting of the Conservatives of Forestville township, held at Rolesville on the 9th day of June, 1870,

On motion, E. E. Gill was called to the chair and W. H. Pace appointed Secretary.

On motion, the following gentlemen received the unanimous sanction of the meeting for the various township offices:

For Magistrates—T. C. Smith and E. E. Gill.

For Clerk—S. W. Terrell.

For Constable—John J. Dunn.

School Committee—W. B. Dunn, Marcel Rodgers and Isaac Lassiter.

The following resolutions were offered and adopted:

Resolved, 1st, That we unqualifiedly condemn the action of the last Legislature in its extravagant waste, and mis appropriation of the people's money.

2nd. That we characterize the action of the last Legislature in seizing upon and appropriating to its own use, as individuals, the fund we had deposited in the Treasury for the purpose of educating our children, as neither more nor less than highway robbery.

3rd. That the Republican party, having control of all the offices in the State and an absolute majority in both branches of the Legislature, is entitled to credit for the good and responsible for all the evil that is shown to result from the radical change in our laws and the administration of them.

4th. That the civil and political equality of the races being established, both by the Constitution of the State and of the United States, is no longer a political issue, and that the interest of the whites and blacks being necessarily identical, we can see no sound reason for their differing, politically, except as individuals.

5th. That a copy of the proceedings of this meeting be sent to the Raleigh SENTINEL, with a request to publish them.

On motion, a township Executive Committee was then appointed consisting of the following gentlemen: W. H. Pace, A. Green, Rufus Temple, J. T. Hunter and J. R. Dunn.

On motion, the meeting, then adjourned.

E. E. GILL, Ch'm.

W. H. PACE, Sec'y.

A CARD.

MORRISTON, July 8th, 1870.

MR. EDITOR:—On arriving at this village this afternoon, I was informed by friends, that Col. Kirk's command or a portion of them, had passed through on the train this morning, and, that a prominent officer in the charge of the command was threatening vengeance against me. Subsequently I learned from two sources, one an officer in Kirk's regiment, that Col. K had ordered his men to shoot me on sight, and he would see them held harmless.

You will perceive, that the sentence of outlawry has been passed upon me by this military autocrat before his braves have fired their first gun. Now for the reason: I understand that one Mr. David Bowman, a Radical from Mitchell county, informed Kirk, that I had told him (Bowman) that I would "kill Kirk on sight." I have never thought that barking dogs would bite, and I think, that those, who know me, give me credit for a sufficient amount of discretion to keep my own counsel, did I really intend to slay the distinguished Colonel. And moreover three gentlemen, who were present, when I conversed with Mr. Bowman, pronounce his statement false. I did say, that I in common with all the good citizens of our county without distinction of party, disapproved of sending troops into our county, because all parties concurred in the opinion, that the law could be executed without the aid of the military authorities, and there had been no act of violence committed by either party, which could furnish a pretext for such a course. I said further, that I did not believe, that there was any Ku Klux organization in existence in this county, but, if Kirk's men should be sent to the county, the natural result would be the formation of secret associations in opposition, and, that if they should commit such depredations, as they or some of them did during the war, I would approve of the movement, and would myself join the Ku Klux or any other organization to protect my property, and save my household from invasion by a lawless and irresponsible mob. If this be treason, they can make the most of it. When the civil law can no longer shield us from outrage at the hands of these men, then I think we are remitted to our original right of self protection.

I have thus far, and would now advise my friends to be prudent and quiet, to treat Kirk with indifference or contempt, as they choose; but by all means to commit no act of violence so long as they can appeal with confidence to the executive and judicial departments for redress of grievances and for the arrest and punishment of criminals.

Now, sir, what does Col. Kirk mean when he promises "to hold harmless any man in his command, who will shoot me down? Does he go through the country provided with blank pardons from the Governor for those who will wreak his vengeance for him? Is he authorized by the Governor to pronounce me an outlaw, and to give two hundred men orders to murder me? I am loath to believe, that the Governor is responsible for any such conduct, but I wish to know the truth, and every citizen of right ought to understand, to what extent the government, under which he lives will furnish him protection. The Standard has already said, that Kirk was the "right man in the right place," the same opinion has been re-echoed by the Lieut. Governor, and even Mr. J. W. Bowman has expressed his sentiments by means of the same phrase.—So much cause is there to suppose, that Kirk will be sustained, however arbitrary, despotic and outrageous his course may be.

In conclusion I will say, that had I really expressed an intention to kill Kirk it was very heroic in him to call upon his thousand men to protect him from one man. I shall remain at my home where my business demands my attention, but, if these licensed assassins attempt to execute their orders, whether successful or unsuccessful, other parties may reluctantly take the law in their own hands.

Respectfully,

A. C. AVERY.

Just as you enter Dickens' residence, in a neat frame written and illuminated by Owen Jones, is the following: "This house, Gad's Hill Place, stands on the summit of Shakespeare's Gad's Hill, ever memorable for its association, in his noble fancy, with Sir John Falstaff.—But, my lads, to morrow morning by four o'clock, early at Gad's Hill. There are pilgrims going to Canterbury with rich offerings, and traders riding to London with fat purses. I have visitors for all; you have horses for yourselves."

They have "Maiden Assurance Companies" in Denmark. A father may deposit any sum at the birth of a daughter, and the child receives, during her minority, four per cent. annually; at eighteen she comes into a higher income, which is increased at stated periods through life.

A census taker in Davie county, Iowa, asked a woman at a farm house the age of her oldest child, and the reply was, "You have come around about a month too soon."

MODERATE CIRCUMSTANCES,

and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders all that is really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this State who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary alterations presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as specified.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements will be made with first class solicitors, to push the Excelsior forward in the Old North State, to that point on which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

NEW ADS.—Read the I. X. L. of T. H. Briggs—the season for the use of the article is now open.

BOYS' SCHOOL.—We call special attention of our city readers, to the card of Mr. John T. Womble, announcing the opening of the next session of his school. Also to the offer of Mrs. Womble to give drawing lessons to pupils at her home.

WASTED.—We would like to obtain copies of the speech of Mr. S. F. Phillips, in Committee of the Whole, of the House of Representatives, in January, 1866. It was published in pamphlet form at the request of a number of gentlemen. We had some copies, but have disposed of them, and others are inquired for. Persons having any of them will do a favor by leaving them at the SENTINEL office.

EXPLANATORY.—The publication of Col. Clarke's circular, in the SENTINEL, yesterday, with marginal notes and comments, was a whim of the Local, indulged in in the absence of the editor, who had not arrived from his home at Hillsborough until after it was in type.

We intended at the same time to suggest to the Colonel, from the pious tone of his circular, to appoint a series of prayer meetings and instead of passing round the hat, circulate the enrolling papers. We forgot this wise suggestion at the time and take this occasion to make it.

The Colonel, it seems, is ahead of the old Roman, Cincinnatus, for he has been called three times from his rural enjoyments, while the old Roman was interrupted in that way but once. But, then, we may account for this by the "imperious necessity" of the case and the superior prestige, in this modern instance.

COL. KIRK, the Governor's pacificator, has been in this city a day or two, we understand, with fifteen or twenty of his men, and that they have been boarding at the National Hotel; at the expense of the State, of course. These are grand times; but who cares! The people foot the bills!

GO IT!—Sitting at our window looking out upon the passing world, at the hour of four, P. M. to-day, our notice was drawn to two of that class of ladies required by the city authorities to have gentlemen with them when they visit Metropolitan Hall, dashing up Fayetteville street on horseback, at a rate of speed that would subject any countryman, indulging in it to smart fine. But they went on their way rejoicing, with their colored outrider at a respectful distance behind, and no policeman asked "what doest thou?"

WHY DIDN'T HE DO IT?—The Governor told the President, that fifteen murders had been committed in one district in this State, and over three hundred and sixty whippings, yet in his all comprehensive proclamation of the 6th of June, he specifies in the whole State, from 1st Jan. '69, to date, only 11 murders, 22 whippings, 1 rape and 1 runaway (Shoffner,) many of them apocryphal. What was the use of going into an enumeration at all, without making it thorough!

True Merit Appreciated.—"Brown's Bronchial Troches" have been before the public many years. Each year finds the Troches in some new, distant localities, in various parts of the world. Being an article of true merit, when once used, the value of the Troches is appreciated, and they are kept always at hand, to be used as occasion requires. For Coughs, Colds, and Throat Diseases the Troches have proved their efficacy.

July 13-eod1w.

THE TRAIN ROBBERS on the R. & G Railroad, some twenty in number, had an examination before Judge Watts, at Franklinton, on Saturday last, and eleven of them, whose names we did not obtain, most of them being colored, were bound over to answer at Court, in bonds ranging from $2,000 to $5,000. We suppose few gave it.

The plan of operations it seems was this: some of the colored brakesmen belonging to the through freight train, had keys to the car locks. When the train left Weldon, these hands would crawl down the side steps or cleats, to the car door, open it, and roll out such goods as they could manage. This was done at certain points on the road where their accomplices were in waiting to receive the goods thrown out.—The goods were taken to the notorious John Everett, who received them and shipped them off for sale.

This notorious scoundrel Everett, is the same who was appointed a Justice of the Peace by Gov. Holden, and when he was about to get into a scrape for some of his rogueries, came to Raleigh and got a company of militia to "protect" him, and then ran away from the investigation he himself had sought, because his own rascality was being brought to light.

He was not captured with his accomplices, and he is perhaps now in Raleigh seeking protection again from the Governor against the Ku Klux.

LAYING THE CORNER STONE.—We brought the ceremonies of laying the corner stone of the Rescue Steam Fire Company's new engine house, up to the making the deposits in the stone. These ceremonies were witnessed by a very large concourse of citizens, among them a large proportion of ladies who seemed to take a deep interest in what was going on. After the closing the receptacle, the crowd repaired to the seats near the Court House front, where K. P. Battle Esq. delivered his address. This address was in Mr. Battle's usual chaste, practical and forcible style, and was cheeringly received by the Fire Companies present, as well as by the large audience of citizens. We should be glad, had we the space, to lay the whole address before our readers, but we learn that he will be requested to repeat it on some future occasion, which we hope he will consent to do.

Mr. Battle first proved that the introduction of the steam fire engine into Raleigh was an evidence of the prosperity of the city and of the intelligence of the citizens. He then showed the perfection of the instrument as a work of art, pronouncing it one of the greatest productions of the age. He then gave a rapid history of fire engines, paying a compliment, by the way, to the hand engines of modern times, and to the efficiency of the Companies which worked them, and their heroism and energy in the discharge of their duty. He then discussed the nature of fire, its contrasts, its terror and its beauties, its uses and dangers. Mr. Battle then gave a history of the greatest fires which have occurred in Raleigh, describing its devastations, and introducing several episodes, for example, the heroism displayed by the late Mrs. Hannah Stuart, in saving her house from the flames, and preventing, by that means, the spread of the fire over blocks of houses; also the rescue of an infant in the fire of 1831, now one of our worthy citizens. He recounted the burning of the old Capitol in 1831, destroying the statue of Washington, by Canova, and also the fire which destroyed all our earlier registry books, deducing thence an argument for the County Commissioners, in addition to their liberality in giving a site for the engine house, having a large cistern built in front of it, for the protection of the valuable records in the Court House. He then gave a faithful picture of many of our Raleigh fires, showing that the want of water is the greatest obstacle in extinguishing flames, and earnestly recommended that timely provision be made for a proper supply of this indispensable element; intimating a preference for underground cisterns.

The above is a very meagre outline of Mr. Battle's speech, which was listened to with great interest by the very large assembly.

The Blood in Summer.

The blood deteriorates in hot weather. Profuse perspiration deprives it of a portion of its nourishing and reproducive properties. Consequently, in Summer, the flesh loses in some degree, its firmness, the muscles lack their usual elasticity and vigor, and the weight of the body diminishes. These are clear indications that the ordinary supply of the life-sustaining principle afforded by the food we eat, is not sufficient to meet the requirements of the system under a high temperature. There is another reason for this, besides the direct influence of the heat, viz: the loss of appetite and the weakening of the digestive powers which it occasions. Under these circumstances a wholesome invigorant is evidently needed, and the best and safest is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This admirable vegetable tonic and alterative, acts favorably upon the system in several ways. It increases the appetite and facilitates digestion, thereby inclining the stomach to receive and enabling it to assimilate a due amount of nourishment. It also tones the relaxed secretive organs and the bowels. Under its operation the process of emaciation, occasioned by the drain through the pores, is arrested, the whole frame refreshed and invigorated, and the spirits exhilarated. The dyspeptic, the bilious, the nervous, the debilitated, scarcely need to be told that it is precisely the stimulant and corrective they ought to take at this season.—Thousands of them know the fact by experience. Nothing in the pharmacopœia (or out of it) will supply its place—least of all the trashy local nostrums which some unscrupulous dealers would be glad, for the benefit of their own pockets, to peddle out in its stead.

LIFE INSURANCE.—Everybody, married or single, should have their lives insured, so as to leave something behind them for their families. If a man insures his life when he is young, the premium is not near so much as when he gets older. Few people notice this, but keep putting it off until the premium is more than they care to pay, and then they do not insure at all. The longer you postpone it, the more it will cost you when you decide to assure; or your health may decline, and you may be unable to pass the required medical examination; or life may suddenly end. All we have to say is this: if you wish to insure your life in a good and reliable company, go to the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, SAMUEL DOUGLAS WAIT, General Agent, opposite the Post Office.

POLL TAX

A song of the times, to be sung at Mass Meetings and other gatherings.

Words by Prof. Harry Cain. Sung to the tune of "Kingdom Come."

1. De black men's gittin awful rich,
De people seems to fear
Although he seems to get in debt
A leetle ebery year.
Of course he gits the biggest kind
Of wages every day,
But when he comes to settle up,
It crumbles all away.

De jis fork up de little tax,
Dat's laid upon de poll,
Its jis a tax de State exacts
For habbin of a soul.

2. You got no land, you got no cash,
You only got some debts,
You couldn't take de bankrup law,
Cos ye hadn't got no "assets;"
De childen day mus have dar bread,
De mudder's gittin ole,
So, darkey, you must starve yerself
To pay upon yer poll
Den jis fork up de little tax, etc.

4. Oh dat's de song dat some folks sing.
Say, how d'ye like de soun'?
Dey say de poor man ought'er pay
For walkin on the groun.'
When colored men was slaves, you know,
'Twas dreffel hard to tax em;
But jis de minnit dat dey's free,
God save us! how dey wax em!
Den jis fork up the little tax, etc.

5. Now haint we got a'most enuff
Oh taxis on de polls,
When poor men hab to scrabble hard
To keep alive der souls?
Den let de poor man use his vote
An use it for himself,
An lay de little pot-tax up
Upon de corner shelf.

Den let's throw off de little tax
Dat's laid upon de poll,
Its jis a tax de State exacts
For habbin ob a soul.

A learned doctor has given it as his opinion that night racing is a benefit to mankind, inasmuch as it kills all the foolish girls and leaves the wise ones to grow into women.

The following discussion illustrates the tax sale bill which passed to-day:

Mr. Trumbull called up the bill to confirm the titles of purchasers to lands sold for taxes in the late insurrectionary States.

Mr. Bayard opposed the bill and said it confirmed sales which had been attended with the grossest irregularities; and the conditions imposed upon the original owner before he can recover his land are the most onerous and unjust.

Mr. Trumbull said, the man who neglected to pay his tax is deserved to pay costs before he could recover his property.

Mr. Cassserly said, the bill was designed to make a void sale for taxes a valid one, and imposed conditions of recovery that were extraordinary, unheard of, and in his judgment illegal.

Mr. Bayard moved to strike out the clause requiring the payment of costs and penalties by the original owner before recovering back his land. Rejected. Mr. B. then moved to amend by providing that the bill shall only be of off of where sales were made according to law. He knew that in some of these sales the costs had been paid up without regard to law. The amendment was rejected and the bill then passed.

Mrs Lincoln's pension bill was postponed.

ATTENTION CONSERVATIVES AND DEMOCRATS.

Messrs. R. H. Jones and G. H. Allord, two of the recent nominees for the House of Representatives on the Conservative Democratic ticket, and Messrs. W. R. Pool and Daniel Scarboro', nominees for County Commissioners, having declined to serve, being banned by the 14th amendment, I therefore, acting upon the advice of members of the party, hereby call the Delegates of the several townships of Wake County to re assemble in Convention at the Court House, in this city, on Saturday the 16th inst., to fill the vacancies on the Conservative Democratic ticket, occasioned by their resignation.

M. A. BLEDSOE,
Pres't of Convention.

Raleigh, July 8, 1870.

PHYSICAL EFFECTS OF MIDNIGHT.—Between 11 at night and 1 in the morning is the interval that the temperature of the human body falls to its minimum. From some researches, lately communicated to the Royal Society, it appears that healthy beings go regularly through a daily cycle of variable warmth. The maximum health is reached at 9 A. M., when, in persons under twenty five, the temperature of the flesh stands at 99 degrees Fahrenheit, and this is maintained till 6 P. M., when it slowly and steadily falls till an hour before midnight; the amount of decrease by this time is something over 2 degrees. At about 3 A. M. the upward turn is taken, and the heat increases till 9 o'clock. It is curious that this extent of change only occurs to young bodies. Old folks preserve a nearly equal degree all the twenty four hours through. Other notable facts are, that feeding has nothing to do with the variations, and that hot and cold baths do not appear so interiere with the successive changes.

THE EQUITABLE

HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (sum assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "ANNUAL AFTER THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid for dividends, at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Special Notices.

This Valuable Family Medicine has been widely and favorably known in our own and foreign countries upwards of

THIRTY YEARS!

It has lost none of its good name by repeated trials, but continues to occupy a prominent position in every family medicine chest.

It is as External and Internal Remedy. For Summer Complaint, or any other form of bowel disease in children or adults, it is an almost certain cure, and has without doubt, been more successful in curing the various kinds of cholera than any other known remedy, or the most skilful physician. In India, Africa and China, where this dreadful disease is more or less prevalent, the Pain Killer is considered by the natives, as well as European residents in those climates a sure remedy; and while it is a most efficient remedy for pain, it is a pearl only safe medicine, even in unskilful hands. Directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all Druggists.

UNPRECEDENTED SUCCESS

Medal Awarded by the Paris Exposition, 1867.

THE AMERICAN COMBINATION Button Hole & Sewing Machine

Has been honored with the highest award in premiums and diplomas wherever entered for competition at fairs and exhibitions held during the past season.

THE SIMPLICITY, EASE AND CERTAINTY with which this machine operates as well as the uniform excellence of its work, throughout the entire range of Sewing, in

Stitching, Hemming, Felling, Tucking, Cording, Braiding Quilting, Gathering & Sewing on, Overseaming, Embroidering on the Edge, and its Beautiful Button-Hole and Eyelet Hole Work, Places it unquestionably far in advance of any other similar invention.

It is also the CHEAPEST intrinsically, as well as the BEST, since it is really TWO MACHINES combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity,) making either the Lock Stitch or Button-Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparatively noiseless, easily understood, and in a word, it combines with these ADVANTAGES EXCLUSIVELY ITS OWN, THE MOST DESIRABLE QUALITIES OF ALL OTHERS.

The public are invited to examine this remarkable machine at MRS. TOMPKINS' Boarding House, (Mrs. Thompson's old stand,) Fayetteville Street, next to Watson's Photographic Gallery.

Instructions in the use of the machine will be given to all purchasers gratis.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 6th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agents. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

MR. J. L. KITCHIN:

DEAR SIR,—We certify that the "Balding Pumps" put up by you in the town of Scotland Neck are a perfect success. They pump very rapidly, and by attaching hose, will throw water from 40 to 60 feet and would prove invaluable in case of fire.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks, upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain fixed standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."
